OCTOBER 2018

The Gift of God

<sup>8</sup> For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, <sup>9</sup> not a result of works, so that no one may boast. <sup>10</sup> For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them.

- Ephesians 2:8-10

We have now entered the 501st year since the start of the Lutheran Reformation. Joyous celebrations were held throughout the world during this past year. We should continue having joyous celebrations every single day. We should remember every single day of our lives that our salvation is a gift; the “gift of God” (Ephesians 2:8). We did not earn our salvation. We did not deserve our salvation. We did not have others do something special for our salvation. Our salvation is a gift to you from God bought for each of us with the precious blood of Jesus Christ Himself.

This message of salvation being a gift to us, earned only by Christ, is more timely now than ever. Undoubtedly, you have heard of the clergy abuse scandal in the Roman Catholic Church which seems to reignite every few weeks. We take no joy in the pain the church is going through, and certainly take no joy in the suffering so many have endured as children. If anything, allow this to be a time for us in the LCMS to once again solidify the One upon whom we stand, to reaffirm the Rock upon which our salvation is built – we are saved by Jesus Christ alone. Through the suffering, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ our sins have been FULLY atoned for; fully paid. Thanks be to God, there is no set number of prayers we must pray to be forgiven; our forgiveness is a gift from God through Christ. Thanks be to God, there is no earthly priest we need to look to determine whether or not we will be set free; we have One High Priest, Jesus Christ Himself who sets us free (Hebrews 5). Thanks be to God, the Word God speaks to us is not decided upon by a single, earthly man, but by God Himself in the scriptures. Thanks be to God, it is truly by grace we are saved; a gift from God.

As the Lord allows, please share this message of hope and gospel freedom with others. You have been given this freedom in Christ. You and I have no right to hoard this message all to ourselves. It is our Christian vocation (calling) to help release others with the gospel of Jesus Christ. No matter where people are, Jesus Christ longs to gather them together under His wings, shielding them from this world with His pure, unadulterated gospel that our salvation truly is a gift from God.

Closing Prayer: Lord Jesus Christ, by your work of dying on the cross and rising from the dead, you have forgiven all our sins and promise us everlasting life. Grant that in humility and love, we might share news of your salvation with whomever we meet. Amen.

Mission Moment:

Promoting Zion's internal, local, and international missionary efforts

Pastor Wokoma is hard at work back at the seminary in Nigeria. Classes started in September. Zion continues to provide financial support to Pastor Wokoma by sending $5,000 in September. During the Summer, Concordia Lutheran Ministries provided a $23,000 grant to help with operating costs of the seminary following an unexpected decline in giving from the Office of International Mission. Monies from the grant will assist in feeding students (some of whom only eat one meal a day), medical care and clothing expenses.

Zion's relationship with Pastor Wokoma and the seminary of Obot Idom continues to be strengthened by our fellowship in Christ and by the generous contributions of our members. Continue to pray for Pastor Wokoma and his work of teaching young men to become pastors.

REFORMATION CELEBRATION

Join us as we celebrate the Festival of the Reformation on Sunday, October 28th with our guest speaker Rev. Dr. Albert Collver. Dr. Collver serves as the Executive Secretary for the International Lutheran Council as well as Director of Church Relations for the LCMS. Dr. Collver will be preaching at both services. A light brunch will be served during the Sunday School hour while Dr. Collver shares with us exciting stories about the spread of Lutheranism throughout the world. Come and enjoy this special presentation and learn the amazing things God is doing through our sister Lutheran churches throughout the world.

OUR CHURCH COOKBOOK

We are excited to be creating another Zion Cook-Book. This will be a fundraiser to raise money for the Kitchen Repair Fund. The first step is we need you all to submit recipes. There are two ways to do this.

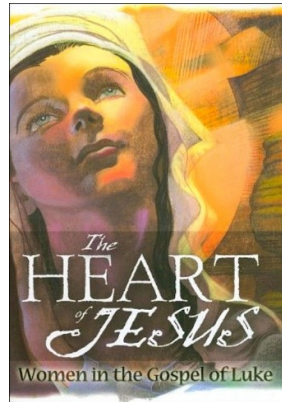

- You can submit a copy of your recipe to the church office, OR
- You can submit your recipe online. (directions are below)

Online Submission directions:

- Go to: <https://www.simplycookbooks.com/html-app/#/> login
- Log in: username: secretary@zxcb.org
Password: pudding031
- Add Recipe
- Click Save after you input the recipe!

Submission deadline: October 28th

We are hoping to have the cookbook available in November! These will make great Christmas gifts!!

1. To endure the taunts of a godless society, Satan, and our own sinful natures:

We will trust while we wait, for our God is never late!

2. Both Mary and Elizabeth (her cousin or aunt) recognized and rejoiced in their miraculous pregnancies: one was the Immaculate Conception of Jesus, the other the conception of John the Baptist to a much older, barren woman.

3. Elizabeth, mother of John the Baptist, was the first person to recognize and acknowledge that the baby in Mary's womb was the long-awaited Savior Himself, the very Son of God!

SESSION TWO Takeaways: Mary - Surprised by God's Humility

1. As the mother of Jesus, Mary's life was at times rewarding, surprising, confusing, and difficult.

2. Mary had an extensive knowledge of Old Testament history. The Holy Spirit had been at work in her heart through His word causing faith and hope - and this same Spirit would use her in teaching Jesus.

3. God's gentleness, revealed most fully in His plan of salvation through Jesus, has made us great!

Rev. Dr. Edward O. Grimenstein
Zion Lutheran Church
3197 Washington Pike
Bridgeville, PA 15017

Dear Rev. Grimenstein:

I would like to offer official congratulations on the celebration of the 50th Anniversary of Zion Lutheran Church. The rich history of your church and its congregation should be celebrated. All the memories that the church holds for its congregation and the community are priceless. Generations to come will have celebrations like this to remind them they are a part of an on-going love for worship and family.

Moreover, I was pleased to read about all the wonderful outreach programs and initiatives that your congregation offers to the community and abroad. Your ongoing commitment to your community and the residents is noteworthy. As you know, it takes a special group of people to dedicate their time and talents to help people in need. The recent fundraising theme of your church, "Forward in Faith" is inspiring. Hopefully, more people will take to heart the church's theme and focus on "faith".

As an elected public official, I am always excited to see churches taking a leadership role to serve families and the community. Please accept my very best wishes and I sincerely thank you for dedicating your time and energy to continue to make Bridgeville and Allegheny County a better place to live, work and worship. Once again, congratulations on celebrating your 50th anniversary.

Sincerely,

What About...

Being Lutheran

What really is a Lutheran?

While there are a variety of ways one could answer this question, one very important answer is simply this, "A Lutheran is a person who believes, teaches and confesses the truths of God's Word as they are summarized and confessed in the Book of Concord." The Book of Concord contains the Lutheran confessions of faith.

Perhaps you have attended an ordination of a pastor and heard him promise that he will perform the duties of his office in accord with the Lutheran Confessions. When people are confirmed they are asked if they confess the doctrine of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, as they have learned to know it from the Small Catechism, to be faithful and true.

These solemn promises indicate to us just how important the Lutheran Confessions are for our church. Let's take a look at the various items contained in the Book of Concord and then we will talk about why the Lutheran Confessions are so important for being a Lutheran.

What are the Ecumenical Creeds?

The three ecumenical creeds in the Book of Concord are the Apostles' Creed and the Athanasian Creed. They are described as "ecumenical" [universal] because they are accepted by Christians worldwide as correct expressions of what God's Word teaches.

What is the Augsburg Confession and Apology of the Augsburg Confession?

In the year 1530, the Lutherans were required to present their confession of faith before the emperor in Augsburg, Germany. Philip Melancthon wrote the Augsburg Confession and it was read before the imperial court on June 30, 1530. One year later, the Lutherans presented their defense of the Augsburg Confession, which is what "apology" here means. It too was written by Philip Melancthon. The largest document in the Book of Concord, its longest chapter, is devoted to the most important truth of the Christian faith: the doctrine of justification by grace alone, through faith alone, in Christ alone.

What are the Small and Large Catechisms?

Martin Luther realized early on how desperately ignorant the laity and clergy of his day were when it came to even the most basic truths of the Christian faith. Around 1530, he produced two small handbooks to help pastors and the heads of families teach the faith.

The Small Catechism and the Large Catechism are organized around six topics: the Ten Commandments, the Apostles' Creed, the Lord's Prayer, Holy Baptism, Confession, and the Sacrament of the Altar. So universally accepted were these magnificent doctrinal summaries by Luther, that they were included as part of the Book of Concord.

What are the Smalcald Articles and the Treatise on the Power and Primacy of the Pope?

In 1537, Martin Luther was asked to prepare a statement of Lutheran Belief for use at a church council, if it was called. Luther's bold and vigorous confession of faith was later incorporated into the Book of Concord. It was presented to a group of Lutheran rulers meeting in the town of Smalcald. Philip Melancthon was asked to expand on the subject of the Roman pope and did so in his treatise, which also was included in the Book of Concord.

What is the Formula of Concord?

After Luther's death in 1546, significant controversies broke out in the Lutheran Church. After much debate and struggle, the Formula of Concord in 1577 put an end to these doctrinal controversies and the Lutheran Church was able to move ahead united in what it believed, taught and confessed. In 1580, all the confessional writings mentioned here were gathered into a single volume, the Book of Concord. Concord is a word that means, "harmony."

What is the connection between the Bible and the Confessions?

We confess that, "The Word of God is and should remain the sole rule and norm of all doctrine" (FC SD, Rule and Norm, 9). What the Bible asserts, God asserts. What the Bible commands, God commands. The authority of the Scriptures is complete, certain and final. The Scriptures are accepted by the Lutheran Confessions urge us to believe the Scriptures for "they will not lie to you" (LC,V,76) and cannot be "false and deceitful" (FC SD,VII,96). The Bible is God's "pure, infallible, and unalterable Word" (Preface to the BOC).

The Lutheran Confessions are the "basis, rule, and norm indicating how all doctrines should be judged in conformity with the Word of God" (FC SD RN0. Because the Confessions are in the completed doctrinal agreement with the written Word of God, they serve as the standard in the Lutheran Church to determine what is faithful Biblical teaching, insofar as that teaching is addressed in the Confessions.

What About...

What is the main point of the Lutheran Confessions?

The Lutheran Reformation was not a “revolt,” but rather began as a sincere expression of concern with the false and misleading teachings, which, unfortunately, even to this very day, obscure the glory and merit of Jesus Christ. What motivated Luther was a zealous concern about the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Here is how the Lutheran Confessions explain what the Gospel is all about:

“Human beings have not kept the law of God but have transgressed it. Their corrupted human nature, thoughts, words, and deeds battle against the law. For this reason they are subject to God’s wrath, the death and all temporal afflictions, and to the punishment of the fires of hell. As a result, the Gospel, in its strict sense, teaches what people should believe, namely, that they received from God the forgiveness of sins; that is, that the Son of God, our Lord Christ, has taken upon Himself the curse of the law and borne it, atoned and paid for all our sins; that through Him alone we are restored to God’s grace, obtain the forgiveness of sins through faith and are delivered from death and all the punishments of our sins and are saved eternally. ...It is good news, joyous news, that God does not want to punish sin but to forgive it for Christ’s sake” (FC SD, V, 20).

What is a “confessional” Lutheran?

The word “confession” is used in a variety of ways, but when we speak of a “confessional” Lutheran we mean a Lutheran who declares to the world his faith and most deeply held belief and conviction, in harmony with the documents contained in the Book of Concord. You will catch the spirit of confessional Lutheranism in these, the last words written in the Book of Concord:

“Therefore, it is our intent to give witness before God and all Christendom, among those who are alive today and those who will come after us, that the explanation here set forth regarding all the controversial articles of faith which we have addressed and explained—and no other explanation—is our teaching, faith, and confession. In it we shall appear before the judgment throne of Jesus Christ, by God’s grace, with fearless hearts and thus give account of our faith, and we will neither secretly nor publicly speak or write anything contrary to it. Instead, on the strength of God’s grace, we intend to abide by this confession” (FC SD, XII,40).

What is an “unconditional subscription” to the Confessions?

Confessional Lutheran pastors are required to “subscribe” unconditionally to the Lutheran Confessions because they are a pure exposition of the Word of God. This is the way our pastors, and every layman who confesses his belief in the Small Catechism, is able with great joy and without reservation or qualification to say what it is that he believes to be the truth of God’s word.

Dr.C,F,W Walther, the Missouri Synod’s first president, explained the meaning of an unconditional confessional subscription in words as clear and poignant today as they were then:

“An unconditional subscription is the solemn declaration which the individual who wants to serve the church makes under oath that he accepts the doctrinal content of our Lutheran Confessions, because he recognizes the fact that they are in full agreement with Scripture and do not militate against Scripture in any point whether the point be a major or minor importance; and that he therefore heartily believes in this divine truth and is determined to preach this doctrine.”

So what is it to be a Lutheran?

Being a Lutheran is being a person who believes the truth of God’s Word, the Holy Bible, as they are correctly explained and taught in the Book of Concord. To do so is to confess the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Genuine Lutherans, confessional Lutherans, dare to insist that “All doctrines should conform to the standards [the Lutheran Confessions] set forth above. Whatever is contrary to them should be rejected and condemned as opposed to the unanimous declaration of our faith.” (FC EP. RN, 6).

Such a statement may strike some as boastful. But it is not; rather, it is an expression of the Spirit-led confidence that moves us to speak of our faith before the world.

To be a confessional Lutheran is to be one who honors the Word of God. That word makes it clear that it is God’s desire for His church to be in agreement about doctrine, and to be of one mind, living at peace with one another. (1 Cor.1:10; 2 Cor.13:11). It is for that reason that we so treasure the precious confession of Christian truth that we have in the Book of Concord. For confessional Lutherans, there is no other collection of documents, or statements or books that so clearly, accurately and comfortingly presents the teachings of God’s Word and reveals the Biblical Gospel as does our Book of Concord.

Hand-in-hand with our commitment to pure teaching and confession of the faith, is, and always must be, our equally strong commitment to reaching out boldly with the Gospel and speaking God’s truth to the world. This is what “confession” of the faith is all about, in the final analysis. Indeed, “It is written: ‘I believed; therefore I have spoken.’ With that same spirit of faith we also believe and therefore speak” (2 Cor. 4:13). This is what it means to be Lutheran.

Dr.A.L.Barry
