Pastor's Corner

Goodbye 2020 . . . and . . . good riddance?

I will never leave you nor forsake you. Hebrews 13:5

The jokes are already abounding – people can't wait to see 2020 in their "rear-view mirror." I bet we've said it in some way. We're looking forward to a vaccine and the pandemic being "over" and 2021 looks like the year. We can't wait to see it over, to see this year gone, to see this year behind us. I would like to ask you a question though . . . why should we be ecstatic to see 2020 end?

I bet all of us can look back in our lives and think of a year that was "terrible" for us. Maybe it was the year 2010 and a loved one died. Maybe it was 2008 and we lost our job. Maybe it was an accident in 1992 that changed our lives. The flipping of a calendar on January 1st didn't magically heal everything that went wrong during that year. But through all those many years, through all those terrible moments in our lives, hasn't Jesus Christ been with us? In the midst of our frailty, in the middle of our worst moments, in the face of death itself, Jesus Christ has been with you. He has not been offended by our unfaithfulness, He does not turn His head away when our disease might disgust even the closest to us, Jesus does not shy away from us as we are dying. In fact, I would propose that during the most terrible moments in our lives, Jesus Christ can be the closest to us. He is always faithfully caring for us, steering us, comforting us.

The year 2020 may have been a bad year for us in many different ways. But as we leave this year behind, do we want to think of it as just "gone," or as Christians, is it better for us to look back at this year as a time when Christ cared for us in the face of a pandemic and everything else we may have endured during this year? I would encourage us to look at 2020, and all years for that matter, not as moments in our lives to be discarded. Our lives are filled with good years, bad years, and very painful years, but they are all years in which Christ cares for us. Whether they are years in the past, or years to come, God will always care for us as He Himself promised, "I will never leave you nor forsake you" (Hebrews 13:5).

Chairman's Report

Happy New Year! While most of our memories of 2020 will be those of the struggles against a pandemic, please pause to also rejoice in the blessings we all undoubtedly received from our Lord throughout the year. Surely our cups are filled in many ways and it is right to give thanks for our gifts.

Hopefully the pandemic will begin to fade and become marginalized as the vaccines take hold during the coming months. Perhaps a more normal state of existence will become the norm and our living patterns return to a more familiar state of affairs. Regardless, we enter 2021 with our Lord by our side.

You are the "church" here at Zion and the "state of Zion" as we begin 2021 is, in my estimation, better than most church communities in the area. We've weathered the storm of COVID by fighting the good fight and keeping the doors open and the sacraments observed, which is a fine testament to your Pastor and Elders' determination to keep the ministry available for you. The Preschool is working to maintain a modicum of normalcy even though attendance is about 150 and not the usual 180+ as in previous years. We are thankful for all of our staff and volunteers who are working tirelessly to keep the ministries alive! Thank them when you see them; their labor is appreciated.

Through all of this adversity, we've been able to barely meet our expenses and even make some efforts to position the church for the future by replacing the boiler system and doing other updates, some of which are on the drawing boards. The Lord loves a cheerful giver, so please revisit your own level of support and re-double your determination to bring to the table a portion of the gifts you have been given to support the ministries at Zion.

There will be more challenges coming for Christians during 2021. Pray for the Christians on Earth, the LCMS and our church here at Zion. Put on the armor of the Lord, stay firm in the Word as this year unfolds. The book of Psalms ends with this: Let everything that has breath praise the Lord! Praise the Lord! That's a nice way to begin 2021...!

SUNDAY SCHOOL NEWS

The Sunday School Christmas video was shown after each worship service on Sunday, 12/13. If you haven't seen it yet, please visit Zion's website: www.zlcb.org/sunday-school. Thank you parents for your participation and support, especially during this challenging year. Each part in the video was integral, so a big thank you to the children for making their part special! A huge thank you to Tess Carter who wrote, directed and produced the video. We are all blessed by her amazing talent!

Christmas cards were sent to Zion's homebound members to share the warmth of God's love with those who are unable to join us for worship at Christmastime.

Sunday school check-in runs from 9:20-9:30 am. Classes begin at 9:30 am.

See the checklist below for what you need to know before, upon arrival, and leaving Sunday school.

- All children will report to their designated Temperature Check Station before going to class.
- All children will wash or sanitize hands before entering and upon leaving their classroom.
- No food or water will be provided! Water fountains are closed. Parents can send a labeled water bottle, if necessary.

Virtual Sunday School Options

We will offer LIVE Sunday school lessons via Zoom to our students from 1st - 9th grades. Your teacher will email you requesting an RSVP to the virtual class. If you have not received an email and would like your child to participate, please contact Katie Gielarowski.

Zion Lutheran Preschool Program

Merry Christmas & Happy New Year from the Preschool!

This has been a challenging year, to say the least, but still wonderful. Parent's willingness to adapt to the "new way of doing things" has been so much appreciated. Their patience as we needed to change our schedules and activities made our jobs a little less stressful. The kind words of encouragement and gratitude has made our days brighter. We have the best parents!

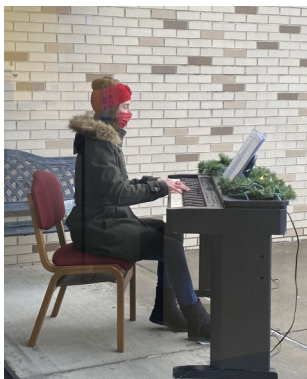

We have been practicing our Christmas songs since September and were looking forward to our Christmas Programs. With the new COVID restrictions limiting the number of people indoors, we had to think outside the box ... literally. We decided to hold our programs outside, two classes at a time and during the school day. Who knew..... it was a blast! The kids loved it, the parents loved it and we all got to enjoy the children singing like little angels. To hear children singing about the birth of Christ with such joy ... well ... it just doesn't get any better than that. I wanted to share a few photos of our preschoolers singing. Enjoy!

Even in the snow ... singing one of our favorite songs: "What did the cows in the manger say, to baby Jesus in the hay? Moo, moo, moo, moo, baby Jesus we love you!"

Thank you Mrs. Tevia ...You are the best!

"Jingle bells, jingle bells, jingle all the way..." Oh how they love to jingle those bells!

Bridgeville Area Food Bank

The January collection for the Bridgeville Area Food Bank is Sunday, January 10th. The “item of the month” is PACKAGED MEALS. Items may be placed in the wicker receptacle in the narthex near the coat rack.

You are also welcome to help at the food bank every third Saturday of the month between 7:45 am and noon at Bethany Presbyterian Church (contact Barb Oechslein for more information). Many families in our area are in need due to the financial downturn. Please continue to support the Food Bank with your donations and volunteer service!

Zion’s Forward in Faith Kitchen Campaign to resume at the end of January

Despite the postponement of fundraising and kitchen upgrades last spring/summer due to the pandemic, much work has been done toward the goal of a renovated kitchen at Zion. Thanks to the generosity of Zion members, more than $22,000 has been raised so far!

The Kitchen Upgrade Committee will discuss the next phase of fundraising and project planning at the All-Church Voter’s Meeting on Sunday, January 31st after late service. Lunch will be served. Social distancing guidelines will be followed.

Please join us at the meeting on 1/31 to learn more about kitchen upgrade plans!

2021 MEMBER CONTRIBUTION ENVELOPES are available on the long table in the back of the sanctuary in alphabetical order. Please be sure to take yours, as well as those of any family members or friends who may not be attending church at this time!

ALTAR FLOWER & ETERNAL LIGHT SPONSORSHIPS for dates in 2021 are now available in the back of the sanctuary!

Our quarterly All-Church Voter's Meeting will be held Sunday, January 31st following the 10:30 worship service in the Fellowship Hall.

Lunch will be served and social distancing guidelines will be followed.

Your attendance supports the planning for our church, and the work of our servant leaders on Council.

Thank you to Zion and Country Meadows for the bag of "goodies" I received in November.

It was very nice to get a surprise!

God Bless! — Dottie Heslop

*Dear Members of Zion,
Thank you for the lovely poinsettia arrangement I received at Christmas. It truly brightened my day. You are a blessing to me.*

Love, Joan Cisko

Bethesda Lutheran Communities is a national organization providing homes and other services for people with intellectual and developmental disabilities. Headquartered in Watertown, Wis, Bethesda strives to become a central point of connection that unites people who have disabilities with communities and provides essential resources to help them live their lives to the fullest. An RSO of the Lutheran Church Missouri Synod, Bethesda offers more than 300 programs across the country, and is guided by Christian faith. For more information, go to <http://www.bethesdalco.org>.

At the most basic level, being a self-advocate means speaking for yourself and what is important to you. It means you have a voice of your own, and you use it. Everyone can be a self-advocate, but for people with intellectual and developmental disabilities, becoming a self-advocate is even more important. People with disabilities have unique needs, challenges, strengths and abilities. Self-advocates speak up about those challenges to drive positive change in their lives and the lives of others with disabilities.

Traits of Self-advocates

Self-advocates speak for themselves: Being a self-advocate at its most basic level means that you speak for yourself. You don't let others speak for you on your behalf unless you ask them to.

Self-advocates speak for others: Not only do self-advocates speak for themselves, they speak for others who may not be able to speak up for themselves.

Self-advocates know their rights: In order to speak up for yourselves and others as a self-advocate, you should know your rights under the law so you can speak out and stand up for them.

Self-advocates control their own lives: Being a self-advocate means you control your own life, but it doesn't mean you shouldn't ask for help when needed. Self-advocates understand that asking for help when needed is a personal choice and is part of taking control of their own life.

Meet Kurt – Disability Advocate for Bethesda

Kurt Rutzen is a Disability Advocate for Bethesda. In his role, Kurt works throughout the states where Bethesda operates and helps the people we support build self-advocacy skills. Kurt, who has a disability himself, has a deep understanding of the political issues facing people with disabilities and works with our operations team to help assess state intellectual and developmental disability supports systems and identify opportunities for advancing public policy affecting people with disabilities.

“Too many people still have the idea that people with disabilities can't be and shouldn't be part of society, or if they can be part of society they should only hang out on the sidelines,” explains Kurt. “People with disabilities are real people too and deserve all the rights that everyone else has.” Prior to joining Bethesda, Rutzen served as a public policy volunteer for The Arc Minnesota and worked in a part-time capacity at the Institute on Community Integration (University Center for Excellence in Developmental Disabilities) at the University of Minnesota.

In Appreciation

Dear Zion Church Family,

Thank you so much for the well wishes, cards, and generous gifts you offered our family this Christmas season. We give thanks for you and your care for us.

Sincerely,
The Grimenstein Family

THANK YOU all for the generous staff Christmas gifts. We appreciate all of your support for the work that we do here at Zion. Happy New Year!

The Zion Staff – Susie, Mark, Sandra, Tom, Jim & Doug

Thank you so much for the outpouring of prayers and concern for Millie Thielet who fell on Sunday December 13th, seriously fracturing her pelvis (just outside the front door of her apartment building). Fortunately she didn't need surgery, and was released from the hospital less than 48 hrs. after the incident. But at 96 years old, it's going to take some time to recover. She wanted to thank you each of you for all the prayers, cards and well-wishes and that she's truly looking forward to being reunited with her Church family as soon as possible.

With great appreciation and love!

Millie, Marianne & Brent

Dear Zion Members,

Thank you so much for praying for my best friend of 40+ years – Darlene Pirmez. After quietly suffering for many decades with serious health problems, she lost her final battle on Thursday December 17th as a result of kidney failure, followed by a heart attack. As a Christian, she knew there was more to life than this veil of tears, and that we will all be reunited one day, where every tear will be wiped away.

Thank you so much for all the prayers, and reaching out with words of comfort,

Marianne Miller

What About...

The Lord's Prayer

The blood of Jesus Christ cleanses us from all sin, reconciles us to God and thus makes it possible for us to come to God in prayer. Prayer is a marvelous privilege from the Lord. He not only commands us to pray, but He invites us to pray to Him. He wants our prayers. What a fantastic blessing prayer is! The Lord's Prayer is the prayer above every other prayer because our Lord Jesus Christ personally gave this prayer to the church. Let's spend a few moments here exploring the Lord's Prayer.

The Introduction: *Our Father who art in heaven.

Our Father, who from heaven above has told us here to live in love. And with our fellow Christians share, our mutual burdens and our prayer, teach us no thoughtless word to say, but from our inmost heart to pray.<sup>1</sup>

What a marvelous blessing! We are able to come to the Lord of the heavens and the earth, the maker of all things, both seen and unseen, the all-powerful and almighty God, and call Him "Father." By nature, we human beings are not inclined to faith, trust and love in God. Instead, the Scriptures reveal we are by nature children of wrath, in rebellion against God, fallen and lost. Thanks be to God through Christ our Lord we are able to call God "Father." What is more, He even wants us to come to Him in prayer. We pray to our heavenly Father with boldness and confidence, through Christ Jesus, our Lord, knowing that He will hear and answer our prayers, according to His good and gracious will.

Our Father who art in heaven. You who loved us enough to send your only begotten Son to save us from our sins, I now come before You in prayer, even as Your Son has taught us to pray.

The First Petition: *Hallowed be thy name.

Your name be hallowed. Help us, Lord, in purity to keep your Word, that to the glory of your name, we walk before you free from blame. Let no false teaching us pervert; all poor deluded souls convert.

God surely does not need our prayer to make sure His name is kept holy. It is holy in and of itself, and it is holy among us when we teach His Word in all its truth and purity, and live holy lives according to His Word. Anyone who teaches or lives contrary to the Word of God is actually profaning and blaspheming the holy name of God.

Hallowed be thy name. By grace You have brought me into Your kingdom of salvation. Ever keep me in the true faith and help me through my words and actions to hallow Your name.

The Second Petition: *Thy kingdom come.

Your kingdom come, guard your domain and your eternal righteous reign. The Holy Ghost enrich our day with gifts attendant on our way. Break Satan's power, defeat his rage; preserve your church from age to age.

Again, God's kingdom does not depend on our prayers, but we pray here that His kingdom would come among us in all its grace and truth. God's kingdom does not come because we make it come, but because the Holy Spirit is working powerfully in us so that we believe His Word and live godly lives here in time and eventually in all eternity. Thy kingdom come ... Lord, use me mightily to share your saving Gospel with others.

The Third Petition: *Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Your gracious will on earth be done, as it is done before your throne, that patiently we may obey in good or bad times all you say. Curb flesh and blood and every ill that sets itself against your will.

God will have His way with us and with the world, that is sure and certain. Here we are praying that His will may be done among us. We are asking God to prevent anything in our lives—including the devil, the world, and our own sinful nature—from placing an obstacle between us and the will of God. We ask that He would give us strength to keep us steadfast in His Word until our death. This is what God's good, gracious will is all about.

Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven... Daily cause Your holy will to be done in my life, and when the world would entice me to turn from You, give me the strength to remain faithful to You.

What About...

Cont'd

The Lord's Prayer

The Fourth Petition: Give us this day our daily bread.

Give us this day our daily bread, and let us all be clothed and fed. From warfare, rioting, and strife, disease, and famine save our life, that we in honest peace may live, to care and greed no entrance give.

We are asking God to lead us to recognize all the fantastic blessings He showers on us in this life, and so lead us to thank and praise Him for these blessings, which include all that we need or require in this life. Give us this day our daily bread ...Thank You for all of those temporal blessings You daily pour out into my life, and which I can so easily forget.

The Fifth Petition: And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.

Forgive our sins, let grace outpour, that they may trouble us no more; we too will gladly those forgive, who harm us by the way they live. Help us in each community to serve with love and unity.

Here we ask our heavenly Father not to see our sins, or deny our prayer on account of them. We recognize and here confess that we are not worthy of any of the abundant gifts God gives us and that we surely do not deserve His blessing, but only His punishment, because we sin. Through Christ our Lord, who gave Himself for us, we are able to ask God to grant us His mercy, for the sin that daily we commit. Being forgiven so graciously by God, we want to forgive and do good to people who sin against us. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us ... Help me to be forgiving of others, even when this is difficult, always remembering how forgiving You have been of me.

The Sixth Petition: And lead us not into temptation.

Lead not into temptation, Lord, where our grim foe and all his horde, would vex our souls on every hand. Help us resist, help us stand firm in the faith, armed with your might; your Spirit gives your children light.

Here we are asking that God would protect us from temptation and keep the devil from attacking us through the world and our own sinful flesh. We are asking that we not be led astray into false belief, or despair, or other shameful sins. We know we are attacked daily and tempted to live contrary to God's will. We have the sure promise from God that Christ has overcome the world for us and will, in our final hour in this life, grant us final victory over them. And lead us not into temptation. ...Lord, help me to resist and overcome the temptations that assail me in this life.

The Seventh Petition: But deliver us from evil.

Deliver us from evil days, from every dark and trying maze; redeem us from eternal death, console us when we yield our breath. Give us at last a blessed end; receive our souls, O faithful friend.

We are praying here that the Lord would rescue us from every evil in this life, evils that have to do with our body, our soul, those things God has given us, our good name and so forth. We ask that when the time comes for us to be taken home to be with the Lord, God would extend His loving protection over us and take us from this valley of sorrow to be with Him forever in heaven. And deliver us from evil. ...Keep from me all those hurts and evils in life that would assail me, and ever give me the power always to resist the evil one.

The Conclusion: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

Amen, that is, it shall be so. Make our faith strong that we may know we need not doubt but shall receive all that we ask, as we believe. On your great promise we lay claim. Our faith says "amen" in your name.

At the conclusion of the Lord's Prayer, we express a confident hope in the truth that our Lord is the mighty One, whose kingdom and power and glory are for all eternity. With these words we are saying to the Lord, "You are a great and glorious God." With the word, "Amen" we are saying, "Yes, yes, it shall be so." And thus, with the certainty that rests on the promise of God that He both invites and hears our prayer, we conclude the prayer He taught us. We say, "Amen" that is, "Yes, Lord, you have commanded me to pray to you and you promise to hear me."
