Zion's Children Know ... Salvation Really is Yours!

The hymns we sing in church truly are treasures. I don't know if you think about hymns that way or not. Maybe you are the kind of person who looks at the number of stanzas and wonders, "do we really have to sing ALL of them?" Sometimes though there can be a very special treasure in the very last stanza. Take for example the hymn we sang a few weeks ago "Glorious Things of You are Spoken" (LSB #648). If we had not sung all of the stanzas, then I would not have been touched by the last half of the last stanza that said this:

*Fading are the world's vain pleasures,
all their boasted pomp and show;
solid joys and lasting treasures
none but Zion's children know.*

Isn't it great that the stanza specifically mentions us here at Zion? After all, the hymn did say, "none but Zion's children know" . . . that's us! Isn't that amazing?! In fact, many of our hymns will mention our church, Zion, and mention us, as the people of Zion. Now, I know you may say, "But pastor, the hymns are talking about more than just us here at Zion, aren't they?" Well, of course they are. But still, that doesn't take away the fact that this hymn is indeed, without a shadow of a doubt, talking about YOU.

You are that child of God who knows this world will not last forever. You are that child of Zion who knows this world's vain pleasures are slowly fading. The child of God who knows this world will always try and put on a boastful and pompous show, but nothing can outdo Christ! You, a child of Zion, believe that "solid, lasting treasures" are found in Christ and Christ alone.

Through His death, you have the forgiveness of all your sins.

Through His resurrection, you have the promise of everlasting life. You are a member, and a child, of Zion. Isn't it wonderful that our hymns have such an amazing way of speaking to us? And isn't it fantastically wonderful to know that our hymns are speaking to us every single time we sing!

Now, how on earth could we not sing ALL of the stanzas. If we ever did that, you might just miss a Word from God meant just for you!

Farewell to the Summer of 2022

September is usually a wonderful month of dry air and cooling temperatures as we end summer and begin autumn. I hope you have had a nice summer.

Let's look forward to schools opening and our Sunday School and Preschool ministries coming to life! Rally Day kicks off our celebration each September and before you know it we'll be getting ready for the holiday season! Keep watching our newsletters, eblasts and bulletins for information!!!

Our trustees have been quite busy as usual this past year. We're still trying to confirm bids for replacement of the windows in the altar area and replacing some doors for the kitchen and fellowship hall side entrance. We're also trying to get a firm bid on putting a vestibule, or second set of doors, on our school facility so that we can moderate the energy loss in the winter and provide a bit more security. Trustees are also looking into replacing the door on the shed so it's more secure. I would like to thank the membership for the support and for all the time and talent people have been giving to keep our facility in good shape! Your Council appreciates your support.

If you might be interested in helping please talk to Bill Bishop, Kari Gresh, or myself this month as soon as possible. Bill is heading the Nomination Committee this year. We're always looking for new members for various committees and boards. We especially could use some men to step up and become Elders. By constitution, your congregation President and Vice President must come from the Board of Elders. Serving as a trustee is a great idea to see how things happen and get a feel for the expanse of this operation. There are other boards and committees that exist that could always use new faces and on which you can get experience and help your ministries here at Zion.

I would like to thank everyone that attended the July Voters' Meeting! I encourage the entire membership to attend these meetings. There are only 5 per year and as a member I hope you feel compelled to hear what is happening at your church. Please take an active role in your church. Zion needs you.

Pray for our members on the prayer list, our fellow Christians on earth, our LCMS, our ministries, our church here at Zion and enjoy and rejoice being a Christian! Praise the Lord and feel good about being saved! I'll close this month by simply using Paul's words of farewell in 2 Cor., "The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all." Amen

The Lutheran Student Fellowship-International Student Ministry

... serves the Pittsburgh university community (Pitt, CMU, Chatham, Carlow, Duquesne, et al). Campus Pastor Eric Andrae (First Trinity Lutheran, Oakland) engages students who want to learn more about the Lutheran faith and experience how the Divine Service connects us to Christ, to each other, and to the Church of the ages.

The Gospel continues to take root in hearts and minds on the campuses across Pittsburgh as students learn of Christianity and Lutheranism through campus and church events. Yvette was raised in England by Ghanaian immigrants. Arriving at the University of Pittsburgh as an international graduate student, she was baptized at the Easter Vigil in April (see photo) after completing catechesis. Her background in Pentecostalism led to many spirited discussion with Pastor over lunch. Attendance at worship, Bible study, and social events were instrumental in drawing her to First Trinity as a new member. Says Yvette, "I'm blessed to have found such a solid community of believers who center their lives around the Gospel. I'm so happy to finally be baptized into the body of Christ."

Yvette, an international student at Pitt, was baptized on Easter weekend.

Pitt student, "Harry", was confirmed in the Christian faith after growing up in a Muslim family.

"Harry," a graduate student at Pitt, was confirmed on Pentecost Sunday (see photo). His background is from a strict Muslim family in Saudi Arabia, which makes his baptism prior to arriving in Pittsburgh, and subsequent confirmation at First Trinity, especially meaningful. Since Harry had joined a misleading cult that claims to be Christian as an undergraduate student in Nevada, Harry said he had to make sure that First Trinity was a Bible-based church and that it followed the teachings of Christ. Harry has been participating in student Bible studies and weekly Divine service. (Cont'd.)

Harry also enjoys inviting others to our events to introduce them to Christ and our faith.

The group held weekly Bible study beginning in May. Between 10 and 20 students joined the studies each week. English as a Second Language classes were also conducted with students from Japan, England, China, Cameroon, Turkey and Saudi Arabia. Earlier in the semester, the LSF was able to reach 50 students on Ash Wednesday, 30 students through an outing to the Pittsburgh Symphony, and a mix of 40 students, faculty, and community members through a First Trinity symposium. The reach of the LSF is expanding and providing many opportunities for the Gospel to take root!

Angels

It seems as though angels have captured the imagination of people everywhere. Unfortunately, there are a lot of superstitions and unscriptural understanding about angels. This pamphlet will provide a Biblical perspective.

Do angels exist?

The Word of God—not popular television shows or magazine articles—is our only reliable source for knowing what angels are, and what they do. The Bible teaches us that angels were made by God during the six days of creation. Before creation there was only God (John 1:1-3), and after creation, we are told that on the seventh day God “rested from all the work of creating he had done” (Gen. 2:3b). The Bible does not indicate on which day of creation God made angels. But angels are very real.

The word “angel” comes from a Greek word that means “messenger”. Angels are God’s messengers. Elsewhere in the Bible, angels are described as spirits (cf. Acts 23:9; Heb.1:14). The word “angel” is actually a description of what they do.

What are angels?

Angels are spirits. They are beings who do not have a physical body. Jesus Himself said, “a spirit does not have flesh and bones, as you see I have” (Luke 24:39). Evil angels too are described as not having “flesh and blood” (Eph. 6:12). In the Scriptures, when angels do appear in human form, this is only a momentary appearance for those who need to see them. Angels are not gods. They are God’s creation and serve His holy and perfect will. The good angels are said to be “ministering spirits” (Heb. 1:14), sent by God to serve us, His people.

Are angels human?

Human beings are the crown of God’s creation. Only of humans, and no other creature, did God say, “Let us make man in our own image” (Gen. 1:26). Furthermore, Scripture reveals that only into human beings did God breathe the breath of life (Gen. 2:7). Also, God did not give angels rule over His creation. This privilege He gave only to mankind (Gen. 1:26-28). Angels exist to serve God and His people.

Do human beings become angels when they die?

No, human beings do not become angels when they die.

The Scriptures are clear on this point. Until the last day, the souls of the dead are before the Lord, enjoying peace and rest in His presence, awaiting the final day when they will receive glorified bodies for all eternity (see Cor. 15; 1 Thess.5:17; Rev.7)

Are angels intelligent beings?

The Bible describes angels as having both intelligence and a will. The good angels know and follow the wisdom of God, which He has revealed through Christ to His church (Eph.3:10). They gladly serve us, who are the heirs of the salvation Christ has won for us (Heb.1:14). However, angels do not know all things. For instance, they do not know the thoughts of our hearts (1 Kings 8:39).

How powerful are angels?

Angels are extremely powerful beings. They are described as “mighty ones” (Ps.103:20;2 Thess.1:7). The good angels guard and protect God’s children (Ps.91:11-13). The power of the angels is never unlimited, but is always subject to the will and authority of God. Evil angels too are powerful beings. The Bible tell us that they hold captive all unbelievers (Luke 11:21-22; Eph.2:2). Believers in Christ are able to withstand the temptation of evil angels through the power of God (Eph.6:10-17).

Where are angels?

Angels, like God, do not inhabit the same physical dimension that human beings inhabit. From time to time, they are ordered by God to appear in our physical dimension. Thus, while there are times when angels will make an appearance at a distinct place (cf. Acts 12:7), they remain beings that inhabit no physical space.

How many angels are there?

The Bible does not give us an exact number, but does teach that there are incredibly large numbers of angels who serve God. Scripture speaks of “ten thousand times ten thousand angels” (Dan.7:10).

From every indication in the Bible, there are an unimaginably large number of angels, of whom we are totally unaware most of the time. There is a fixed and limited number of angels, never increasing or decreasing. Unlike human beings, angels do not marry and have children (Mark 12:25). They are immortal.

Angels Cont'd.

Are all angels the same?

Within the large numbers of angels there are apparently certain orders or classes of angels. Scripture speaks of “cherubim” (Gen.3:24; Ps 80:1), “seraphim” (Is.6:2), “thrones or powers or rulers or authorities” (Col.1:16), “archangel” (1 Thess.4:16).

Also among the evil angels there are ranks and classes of angels (Matt.25:41). Satan is described as the “Prince of the devils” (Luke 11:15). It is pointless, however, to try to invent complicated divisions and ranks of angels, since Scripture does not speak of this.

What are evil angels, and what do they do?

Originally, all angels God created were good and did His will perfectly. At some point after God created them, some angels chose to rebel against Him. They fell away from God and into great sin and evil. At that point, they were confirmed in their evil condition. There is no hope for them. In Matt.8:29, they recognize that there will be a time when they must suffer eternal torment and punishment for their rebellion against God.

Satan is the chief evil angel, the “prince of demons” (Luke 11:15). Here is how our Lord Jesus Christ describes Satan: “He was a murderer from the beginning, not holding to the truth, for there is no truth to him. When he lies, he speaks his native language, for he is a liar and the father of lies” (John 8:44).

When precisely the evil angels rebelled and fell away from God we cannot say for sure, but we do know it was some time at the beginning of the world. Most church fathers believe that the evil angels’ original sin was pride, based on the fact that Satan’s temptation of Adam and Eve was an appeal to their pride. Also, 1 Tim.3:6 indicates that pride was the cause of the devil’s condemnation.

The devil is our great enemy, who “prowls around like a roaring lion looking for someone to devour” (1 Pet. 5:8). The Bible tells us that the devil is the cause of unbelief in the world (Eph.2:1-2). Every person who does not believe the good news of Christ Jesus is thinking and doing what the devil wants. The very fact that people do not realize this, and even deny it, is the devil’s greatest deception. The devil is so deceptive, at times he will even disguise himself as an “angel of light” (2 Cor.11:14).

What do good angels do?

Good angels enjoy the blessing of being able to see God. They are in the immediate presence of God, always beholding His glory and power (Matt.18:10). This is called the “beatific vision,” which all Christians will enjoy one day in heaven.

God’s Word reveals the following things about the activity of good angels: They praise God (Is.6:3; Luke 2:13), and they are the Lord’s servants in the world and in the Church (Ps.103:20-21; Heb.1:14).

God sends angels to serve and to protect believers in their work and their callings in life (Ps.91:11-12). The Bible tells us that angels are present in the public worship of Christians (1 Cor. 11:10). God also uses angels to help the family and to preserve law and order (Gen.24:7; Matt.18:10; Dan.10:13).

How are we to treat angels?

We need to praise and thank God for good angels. We are told that we are to take care not to offend them through sin and unbelief (1 Cor.11:10; 1 Tim.5:21). But the Scriptures are also clear that we must not pray to angels, nor offer them our worship. The angels themselves protest any worship given to them (Rev.22:8-9).

As believers, we have the privilege of having angels surrounding us and protecting us and working to do God’s good and perfect will in our lives. Our hope and trust is always in God, whom we know sends His angels to watch over us and to see us through whatever difficulty in life may come our way.

Because of our Lord Jesus Christ’s perfect life and sacrificial death, we have the assurance of the forgiveness of all our sins. We know that God loves and cares for us as His dear children. Furthermore, we know that the Lord sends His angels to care for us so that someday we may join them, and all the company of heaven, in singing His praises for all eternity.
